

On December 1, 2023, a trash truck blew a transmission line and leaked 30 or more quarts of transmission fluid. After 2 hours of cleanup, the area was drivable again. This clean-up was done due to my training at the ICWUC Training Center in Cincinnati, Ohio

